IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY
In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Allie Meady Gowin.

Two years ago today dear mother,
You were called away.
Our Saviour needed you above
So called you from the ones you loved.

A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still.
But death of you and Papa left a lonliness,
The world can never fill.

Mother we will never forget you
No matter where we roam,
Someday we will all be together,
In that everlasting home.
—Sadly missed by her Children.
(1tc)

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of my dear uncle, Arthur C. Cyrus, who passed away two years ago, Aug. 5, 1955.
Two years have passed since that sad day,
When a death angel came and took him away.
You do not know the sorrow to be left alone,
Till God sends a message to your home.
Home is not home for he is not there,
Angels have taken him out of our care.
Dark is his room, empty is his chair,
He has gone to a land so precious and fair.
We've missed the sound of his footsteps,
And his voice since he has been gone.
And though we no longer see him,
In our hearts he still lives on.
—Sadly missed by
Mr. A. R. Cyrus,
Rt. No. 2, Appomattox, Va.
(1tp)

IN MEMORIAM
In sad remembrance of our dear husband and daddy, Arthur C. Cyrus, who departed this life 2 years ago, August 5, 1955.
The dearest one to us is gone
The voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That none can ever fill.

God knew that you were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."

Our days are long and lonesome,
Our pleasures are but few.
The memory will live in our heart
Of the days we spent with you.

We sit here in the evening,
Often we are alone;
Wishing, hoping and longing,
If you could only come home.

You were with us for so long,
Our life together was blessed.
Then you were taken from us,
But God loved you, and God knew best.

You suffered much, but you were brave,
And we often heard you sigh,
"I know I am going to meet my Saviour,
Live for Him and we will meet on high."

We often sit and think of you,
And of the life you lived so fair;
And we know that Heaven shines a little brighter,
Because you have entered there.
—Sadly missed by
Wife and Children.

The small town of America is where the progress of our country is made. It is in the small town where its residents are united, often homogeneous and fully patriotic.

It is in the small towns that community projects and self-improvement reach their fullest expression. Community pride and good citizenship. are often more apparent in the small towns of the United States than in larger cities.

In addition, life is more wholesome and probably healthier. The product of the small town — the average U. S. citizen, and a better balanced one, according to the psychologists. This does not mean that those from the metropolitan areas are abnormal or unattractive citizens, but it merely means that the edge goes to those from the small towns — the typical U. S. community.

Business is realizing the advantages available in small towns and many of the large corporations are moving their huge plants to the smaller towns of the nation. More and more, the country's top executives and the wealthiest citizens are moving to small towns, wher they can enjoy a slower pace of life, a more normal and a more wholesome life.

While the great metropolitan areas are wonderful to visit, containing amazing examples of engineering genius and business and industrial activity, it is the small town and the rural community which is the backbone of America and where the real progress — the real Americanism from the grassroots — is to be found.
